

CODESRIA AT THE 2010 CAPE TOWN BOOK FAIR

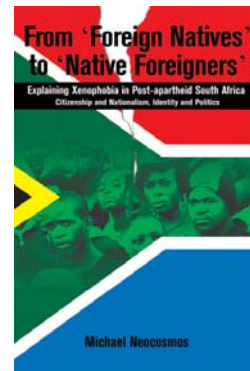

IN COOPERATION WITH FRANKFURTER BUCHMESSE

The Council for the Development of Social Science Research in Africa (CODESRIA) is pleased to invite all participants at the 2010 Cape Town Book Fair (CTBF), taking place from 30 July to 2 August at the Cape Town International Convention Centre, to the exhibition of its books, monographs, journals and other publications at

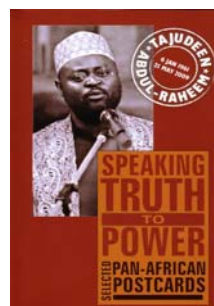

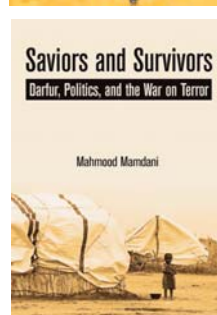

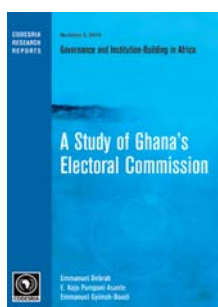

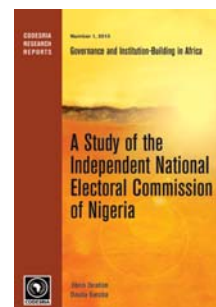

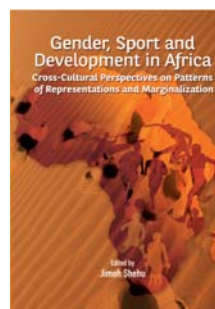

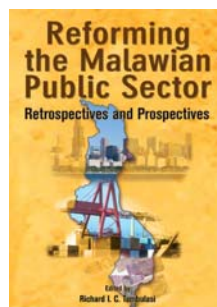

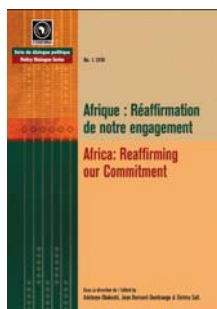

STAND D13

The Cape Town Book Fair is presently the largest book event in sub-Saharan Africa. The 2009 edition featured over 266 exhibitors from all over the world, including CODESRIA, and this year's edition promises to be much bigger as the book fair continues to grow annually.

A discussion on Xenophobia in South Africa will be held on Sunday 1 August from 12:00 to 12:45 at the Poetry Café, and Michael Neocosmos' new book – From 'Foreign Natives' to 'Native Foreigners' – will feature prominently.

Recent CODESRIA publications at the Book Fair

CODESRIA's representative at the Cape Town Book Fair this year

Mr Alex Bangirana

Head of Publications

Tel: +27 837147692

arbangirana@yahoo.co.uk

publications@codesria.sn

For further information, please contact

Yves Eric Elouga

Marketing and Distribution Officer, CODESRIA Publications
Phone: +221 33 825 98 14 / 22 – Email: yves.elouga@codesria.sn

www.codesria.org