Introduction

CODESRIA is organizing the second South-South summer institute, which will gather three major social sciences continental organizations: APISA, CLACSO and CODESRIA, as a follow-up to the inaugural session held in Havana, Cuba from 07 November to 02 December 2005.

The Dakar meeting (Senegal) takes place from 15 May to 09 June, 2006 on the following topic: Re-thinking Development in the South: A Tri-continental Perspective.

This event which will gather at the same time Asian, Latin-American and African researchers for research and training activities during three (3) weeks, gives the opportunity to CODESRIA Documentation and Information Centre (CODICE) to provide them with two separate bibliographies on the theme of the institute.

These two catalogues contain more than 800 references. The first one is a selection of English and French documents compiled from the bibliographical data base of the Documentation Centre. In the second one are listed CODESRIA books and articles published in CODESRIA Journals: "Africa and Development", "African Journal of International Affairs"; "African Sociological Review"; "Afrika Zamani"; "Identity, Culture and Politics : an Afro-Asian Dialogue"; "Journal of Higher Education in Africa".

The references cited are monographs, theses, periodical articles and conference documents.

All the documentation gathered in these two products is available at the Documentation centre and can be used by the participants. Other bibliographic searches on other specific topics can also be done upon request to the staff of the Documentation centre.

CODICE

Introduction

Le CODESRIA organise le deuxième institut d'été Sud-Sud qui réunit les trois organisations continentales de sciences sociales que sont : APISA, CLACSO et CODESRIA après celui inaugural de la Havane au Cuba qui s'est déroulé du 7 novembre au 2 décembre 2005.

La rencontre de Dakar au Sénégal a lieu du 15 mai au 9 juin 2006 sur le thème : Repenser le développement dans les pays du Sud: une perspective tri-continentale.

Cet événement qui va regrouper à la fois des chercheurs asiatiques, latino-américains et africains pour des activités de recherche et de formation pendant une durée de trois (3) semaines, donne l'occasion au Centre de documentation et d'information du CODESRIA (CODICE) de mettre à leur disposition deux bibliographies séparées sur le thème.

Ces deux catalogues recensent plus de 800 références. Le premier est constitué d'une sélection de documents en français et en anglais qui sont tirés de la base de données bibliographique du Centre de documentation. Le deuxième quant à lui est une compilation de livres et d'articles des revues éditées au sein du CODESRIA. Il s'agit de : « Afrique et Développement » ; « Afrika Zamani » ; « Identité, culture et politique: un dialogue afro-asiatique » ; « Revue africaine des affaires internationales » ; « Revue africaine de sociologie » ; « Revue de l'enseignement supérieur en Afrique ».

Les références ainsi signalées sont des monographies, des thèses, articles de périodiques et des documents de conférence.

Toute la documentation réunie dans les deux produits est disponible au niveau du Centre de documentation et pourra être mise à la portée des participants. D'autres recherches bibliographiques sur d'autres thèmes spécifiques pourront également être effectuées à la demande auprès des agents du Centre de documentation.
